A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fischer (U.S. Patent No. 4,450,834).

Art Unit: 3732

Each instrument 12 includes alignment features, e.g. recesses or apertures 34. The assembly further comprises a third instrument 16 (see Figure 4) having alignment features, e.g. threaded stud 126 extending toward the ends, adapted to cooperate with the alignment features of the first and second instruments so as to position the instruments in a predetermined position relative to one another (see Figure 1). The first instrument is adapted to, i.e. capable of, be secured to an orthopedic component prior to implantation or after. The recesses or apertures 34 received the threaded stud 126 therein (see Figure 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 21-25 are allowed.
